

There is an upcoming conference, the “LDS Life Science Research Symposium,” which will be held at the Joseph Smith Memorial Building in Salt Lake City, Utah, on July 18-20, 2013. This symposium is held once every three years, and this is the third of its kind. Early registration ends July 1st, and registration closes July 15th. See the BYU Life Sciences Research Symposium website for more details about registration, participants, and topics.
