

The primary publication of Interpreter Foundation is its peer-reviewed journal, Interpreter: A Journal of Mormon Scripture. In addition to this, Interpreter will also publish and share many other types of content, including news, other news, blogs, audio podcasts, and now videos.

Interpreter is pleased to announce its own YouTube channel, MormonInterpreter. This channel will include all types of video content that may be of interest to Interpreter readers, including video lectures, conference presentations, round table discussions, and other interesting video content. Some of this content will be new and unique from Interpreter Foundation; we will also share content produced by others that we would like to share with our readers. You may subscribe to our YouTube channel by going to it, and clicking on the “Subscribe” button next to the name “MormonInterpreter.” We will also include these videos in our email, RSS, Google+, Facebook, and Twitter subscription feeds.

We hope that by engaging in multiple types of multimedia content that we will be able to reach a wider audience, and better fulfill our mission of increasing understanding of scripture and related LDS subjects through a variety of disciplines.
